WOMAN'S TEETH BESTS BURGLAR.

Worthy Resident of Santa Barbara Attacked.

Bites Assailant's Hand and Leaps from Window.

Struck on Head With Hammer in Bedroom Battle.

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 1.—Attacked in her home here by a burglar, who aroused her from sleep during the early hours of morning, Mrs. Constance Delaney, 40, one of Santa Barbara's wealthy residents, fought a desperate battle with the intruder, finally biting him on the hand and when he leaped back in pain, she seized the opportunity to break the glass from a bedroom window and leaped ten feet to the ground to escape.

Stephen Ruiz, 20 years old, is a tall, thin man with a scarred face and a finger chewed, looked at Mrs. Delaney's assailant. He refused to tell the cause of his injuries, beyond saying he was in an encounter. A Pico, 15 years of age, held at the detention house, confessed, the police say, that he was with Ruiz in the attack during the attack.

AROUSING BY LIGHT. Mrs. Delaney was aroused by the intruder striking a match near her bed. In the instant's flutter of light, she says she partly recognized Ruiz, who had been employed as one of her gardeners. Then she attempted to leap from the bed but he threw himself upon her, seized her about the throat and attempted to choke her.

Her frantic efforts broke his grip and he struck her several times with a mechanic's hammer. In the blows rained, Mrs. Delaney managed to get to the floor and there in the fierce fight that ensued, she managed to get his hand in her teeth, for the moment quelling him.

In the darkness she rushed to a window, broke the glass into fragments, and before he could collect himself she had leaped to the ground. Her screams had attracted neighbors, Robert S. Hyde, who resides on the adjoining estate, responding and he took her and her little son, a child of 8 years to the residence, where the police detained from her a description of her assailant as well as she could remember the man in the moment's notice of the burglar's escape.

POLICE FIND BOMB. When Ruiz was searched at the station he was found in possession of a home-made bomb, fashioned of the soldered together and filled with explosive attached to a fuse. Young Pico informed the officers.

HEARTSICK GIRL TRIES TO END LIFE.

Evelyn Smith, Sixteen Years Old, May Survive Self-Inflicted Wound.

"What is the use of living if you have no one to care for you?" This is what Evelyn Smith, 16 years of age, of 1851 West Forty-third street, said late yesterday afternoon when she was carried into the Receiving Hospital suffering from a self-inflicted bullet wound in the left lung.

Bobbing as if her heart would break the little blond-haired girl told Police Surgeon Dodge that she attempted to end her life because no one loved her. She declared that she had not heard from her father, who lives near Chicago, for weeks and that she was heartsick for some one to care for her.

The 16-year-old girl, according to Dr. E. T. Patton, who was called to the Receiving Hospital to treat her, was taken from the Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society near Chicago by C. Carqueville, a wealthy manufacturer of Park Ridge, Ill., to work as a nurse and maid. The Carqueville family moved to this city about a month ago and Miss Smith came with them.

From what the police and the surgeons were able to gather from the girl, it appears that she became distraught when she did not hear from her father, J. R. Smith, and her brother, William Smith, both living near Chicago, and taking a revolver belonging to her employer, locked herself in her room and attempted to end her life.

Police Surgeon Dodge and Dr. Patton declared after treating the girl that she probably will recover.

WIFE SAYS HE TRIED TO TAKE HER SALARY.

Henry A. Houck had an eye for business, according to a complaint for divorce filed yesterday by Daisy A. Houck. Mrs. Houck had a job and her husband demanded that she give him her entire salary, with the possible exception of carfare. If she did not do this, the complaint states, Mr. Houck threatened to get a divorce and take all the community property. The couple were married in 1914 and separated Oct. 6, 1919.

TO GIVE PROGRAM. The children of the Los Angeles Orphanage, Boyle Heights, will give a patriotic program on Washington's birthday, February 22, and their guests will bring articles for a shower. The sisters of charity are preparing a program of music and addresses by the little inmates.

SOLVE BALE OF HAY MYSTERY.

It's First Prize in Comic Gump-Letter Contest.

Shall Uncle Bim Wed the Widow? Write Us!

Win Magnificent Mousetrap, Beautiful Birdcage!

Gump! Gump! Gump! That makes three Gumps, Andy and Min, and little Chester. GUMP!! That's four. Uncle Bim, of course. He's the biggest chump—no, Gump—of the bunch. Possibly you disagree. In that case you have half a chance to win a prize. The other half a chance lies in agreeing.

This means you are between two lines, just like all the rest of us. Extend your penmanship a bit and we'll try to convey what we're talking about. Incidentally we are about to solve the Great Hay-Bale Mystery that has been puzzling all who passed the First-street windows of The Times.

Springing in drawing near, as spring generally does at this season of the year, and Uncle Bim, as you no doubt have observed by the daily comic strip in The Times, is quivering on the threshold of matrimony. He feels like a young mountain freshet, just about to take the plunge. The keynote of this tragic slander.

Concerns the comic Widow Zander (his poem). Shall the wealthy Uncle Bim marry the Widow Zander? That is the momentous question upon which hangs the destiny of the Gumps. The widow is lovely in public, but in private—that's dubious. She thinks she has Uncle Bim lassoed, but a Gump is liable to jump in either direction. If she loved him for himself alone, everyone might withdraw his objections, but suppose Uncle Gump's finances took a slump? Would she bump him into the discard? Or would hearts still be trumps? We admit that on this point we're up a stump. If Uncle Bim marries the widow, Andy and Min and little Chester will be out the fortune which they expect to inherit.

Min would like to dump the Widow Zander over a steep cliff. This said reflects Andy's sentiments in a lump. But Andy has the full line of Gump fallings. At scarce moments the slightly admires the widow from a safe distance. The greater the distance, the more he admires her. If she were at the North Pole he would have a very warm feeling for her. She's probably need it.

We would like to know how to solve this Gump love puzzle. In fact, the anxiety along this line is so great that we are offering prizes to those who will write the best solution to the mystery. If you're thinking about Uncle Bim and the Widow Zander you have no doubt made up your mind.

Three magnificent prizes will be given for the three best letters received by The Times on the subject. They have been on display in The Times First-street windows for some days. They are: First prize: A bale of hay. Second prize: A bird cage. Third prize: A nickel-plated mousetrap.

The contest opens today. It lasts until further notice. Write a letter to Sidney Smith, care of the Gump Editor, The Times, confining your opinions and conclusions to not more than 100 words. The shorter the better. If you think that Uncle Bim should marry the Widow Zander, tell us why. If you think he should not marry her, ditto.

Make your letters funny if you can. If you can't be funny be as funny as you can. The Gump Editor hasn't much sense and therefore likes to be amused. Sidney Smith, the artist who draws the daily strip in The Times, wants us, however, that he will not necessarily adopt the suggestion of the winning letter. He says love must take its course.

NEARING END OF RESCUE BATTLE.

Parties Expected to Clear Ridge Route at Once.

No Casualties Found Among Snowbound Travelers.

With Hundreds Extricated, Fears Are Still Felt.

Rescue work among the many tourists and motorists who were stranded last Saturday night in the heaviest snowstorm in recent years along the Ridge Route, north and west of Los Angeles, moved an end last night. Relief parties, forcing a way through heavy drifts, worked as far south as Sandberg from Bakersfield, while those from Los Angeles had pushed north to a point three miles south of Sandberg. The meeting of the two parties was momentarily expected. The number of persons who had been caught in the snowstorm was variously estimated from 125 to 300.

No casualties had been reported up to a late hour last night, although at one place, known both as Killingsworth and as Kelly's twenty-five persons, including six children of whom one was a 2-month-old baby, had nothing left to eat except a few potatoes. The baby had been without milk for forty-eight hours and the motorists were rapidly being reduced to a point of extreme hunger when relief arrived.

Advices from Bakersfield late in the day were that fear is expressed concerning the safety of several parties of motorists reported to have been passed by others, more fortunate in fighting their way through to relief. Some of the refugees stated they believed great distress and perhaps death had been visited on some of the stranded parties not yet reached.

SOME OF THE RESCUED. Among the Bakersfield people, some of whom are now confined to bed as a result of their experience, who arrived home yesterday are W. De Castro, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Coler, Mr. Law and Mrs. Cotteridge. They were caught in two automobiles in the snowstorm and were rescued by a party of American Legion men and Supervisor J. I. Wagy.

Among the others caught in the blizzard and who were rescued are the following: E. H. Van Housen, Oakland; Mrs. Blanche Walters, Los Angeles; Mrs. S. C. Rice, Napa; Mildred Fitchette, El Paso; Madge Morris, San Francisco; Lucille Salt Lake City; Frank Hall, San Francisco; Pat Murphy, San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Clark, Portland.

Fifteen tourists, stranded since Sunday, were marooned six miles from Kelly's, deep in the mountains, and relief parties were attempting to force their way through the snow, declared to have drifted to depths ranging around seven feet.

Through combined efforts of the Automobile Club of Southern California, the Southern California Telephone Company, the State Highway workers and many volunteers, the Ridge Route was opened up as far north as the La Grange, where the snow was cleared away. The highway commission, this is two miles north of Kelly's. From the north, working out of La Grange, gangs of relief workers have forced a path south as far as Sandberg and hoped to complete the route by tonight. Within a few hours, connecting with the crews from the south.

STAGE GETS THROUGH. The route to Bakersfield via Mint Canyon, Mojave and Tehachas, was reported to be open by the Packard Stage Company as being passable. I. F. Dix, plant superintendent of the Southern California Telephone Company, who was in charge of two gangs that toiled since last Sunday battling the huge snowdrifts, reported the advance to the farthest point north.

After relief workers had been handicapped seriously by blizzards who entered the one-way trail and then blocked progress of trucks rushing back for supplies, the commission acted upon a request to place officers at the Ridge Route garage and forbid entrance up the road.

LOW ESTIMATE MADE. The lowest estimate of persons stranded in the record-breaking storm comes from the highway commission. At the local offices it was estimated 125 persons had been caught in the snow and regarded as low by other rescues.

SNOWBOUND PARTY FROM HERE SAFE.

Los Angeles Business and Society Folk Marooned in Mountain Clubhouse.

A party of Los Angeles men and women, prominent in business and society, is snowbound at the clubhouse at Arrowhead (formerly Little Bear) Lake. Three of the party, Eugene Overton, Morgan Adams and Alfred Wright, managed to make the trip over the snows, which range from five to six feet deep on the flat, arriving in Los Angeles late Tuesday night. They came on snowshoes and with the two Swiss guides of the club, who sped along on skis.

Remaining in the clubhouse are Mrs. and Mrs. A. J. Murietta, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Crawford, and Mrs. L. W. Banks. Those coming out report that the party is safe at the club, having ample food and fuel to last until the members can be brought out.

Beginning today a caterpillar tractor will attempt to make a roadway by packing down the snow. The development plans of the lake include a winter road to run down the north side of the mountain into Victor Valley, but that work will not be finished until next year.

The party went up for the weekend, arriving at the clubhouse Saturday morning. The snow continued from early Sunday through Monday. Messrs. Wright, Overton and Adams left Tuesday morning on the fourteen-mile trip over the snow to Arrowhead Hot Springs. They report that the snow is light because of the low temperature in the mountains. The party has been engaged in much winter sports, snowshoeing and skiing, skating on the frozen arms of the lake and tobogganing on the two-mile run in the valley.

SELECT JURY TO TRY WOMAN AS MURDERER.

Counsel for the State and defense yesterday examined thirty-five takersmen in their attempt to obtain a jury to try Mrs. Julia Lee Johnstone, accused of the murder of her husband, Thomas P. Johnstone, in Long Beach last July.

Work of selecting the jury will continue today in Judge Avery's court where the woman is on trial. Counsel for the defense announced yesterday that in all probability they will produce witnesses to show that Mrs. Johnstone was temporarily insane at the time of the killing. The shooting followed several attempts on the part of the husband to persuade her to leave him.

WIDOW OF FORMER SHERIFF AND CITY TREASURER IS FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Mrs. Alice Benedict Kaye, widow of James C. Kaye and mother of Fire Commissioner Kaye, was found dead in bed yesterday morning at her home, 741 South New Hampshire street. Physicians state that death was due to a disorder of the heart.

Suffering somewhat from neuritis Tuesday evening, Mrs. Kaye retired rather early, and yesterday morning when she failed to appear at breakfast time relatives investigated only to find her dead.

Mrs. Kaye was born in Booneville, Mo., fifty-nine years ago. She came here with her husband in 1882 and had for many years resided at the New Hampshire-street address. From 1882 to 1888 her husband, James C. Kaye, was sheriff of Los Angeles county, and after that he served for several years as City Treasurer.

He was president of the old Dollar Savings Bank which, after a number of changes, became what is now the Bank of Italy, and a director of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Kaye leaves four children, J. W. Kaye, the Fire Commissioner, Misses Florence and Cecilia Kaye, and Mrs. J. D. Bernard, all of this city.

The funeral services will be conducted at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow in St. Basil's Church, and the remains will be laid beside those of the husband in Calvary cemetery. Father Kirk will officiate.

Other witnesses will be quizzed today to give their version of the affair of Mrs. Kaye and the boy, James P. Kaye, who was said to be the informant who "upped" the officers off to Mrs. Kaye's alleged liquor activity, will also be called by the District Attorney.

The story as told by several witnesses was that on January 17, Mrs. Kaye was found in a rooming house where she had been informed that Mrs. Kaye was manufacturing liquor there.

SEVERAL ACCUSED. Antonio Ferraro and Frank Collier had delivered a sack of potatoes at a Pains grocery store.

TORTURES LAID TO DRY AGENTS.

Charges and Investigation Follow Palma Raid.

Man, Boy Hung by Hands, Witnesses Declare.

Denials Made as Woolwine Delves for Facts.

Harrowing recitals of tortures declared to have been inflicted by five Federal prohibition enforcement officers upon an innocent 9-year-old boy and an Italian suspected of violating the liquor laws were being investigated last night by Dist. Atty. Woolwine, and a committee of his deputies.

The investigation was begun by the District Attorney after charges had been made by Attorney Arthur E. T. Chapman, counsel for the two persons said to be the victims of the tortures.

James Fiore, the Italian, charged that he was in Palma was forcibly entered by the Federal agents and that he was hung to a curtain pole with his hands locked to his wrists and that while his toes barely touched the floor, he was severely beaten with revolvers, for refusing to furnish information. He is now at the French Hospital in a critical condition, with several fractured ribs.

Barlo Ferraro, the boy, was also hung by the wrists to the curtain pole for five minutes, it is charged. He is held incommunicado at Juvenile Hall.

Two of the five accused Federal officers were called before Dist. Atty. Woolwine late yesterday. C. H. Wheeler, one of the officers, is said to have admitted he participated in the raid on Fiore's home and handcuffed the man and locked him to the curtain pole.

STORY DENIED. "But he was not hanging," Mr. Wheeler said. "His whole body was not on the pole, for a five-pound weight would have broken it."

Earl Miller was also called before the investigators. Claimed to have failed to identify him as one of the five officials who conducted the raid.

Three other witnesses will be quizzed today to give their version of the affair of Fiore and the boy, James P. Kaye, who was said to be the informant who "upped" the officers off to Mrs. Kaye's alleged liquor activity, will also be called by the District Attorney.

The story as told by several witnesses was that on January 17, Mrs. Kaye was found in a rooming house where she had been informed that Mrs. Kaye was manufacturing liquor there.

SEVERAL ACCUSED. Antonio Ferraro and Frank Collier had delivered a sack of potatoes at a Pains grocery store.

PLAN COLORADO RIVER SURVEY.

Federal Board to Confer With Experts Here.

To Discuss Irrigation and Power in El Centro.

Hoover and State Officers to Study Budget.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 1.—To conduct an extensive survey of flood, reclamation and irrigation conditions pertaining to the Colorado River in Imperial Valley, the Colorado River Commission, a Federal body created to study and formulate a program broad enough to meet the needs of the project, will meet in El Centro this morning and afternoon.

The announcement was made by Secretary McVey of the Imperial Irrigation district, with whom directors and experts, as well as others, the commission will confer while here.

It was likewise advised that the commission will meet March 15 in Phoenix, and following the conference here, will proceed to Los Angeles for a session, March 18, with the Chamber of Commerce here.

COMPLETION DISCUSSION.

The commission, of which Hoover is chairman, recently completed important discussions in Washington, where it was held to make a tour of the territory affected for the purpose of gathering accurate information on the problem.

Representatives of the seven states interested in the Colorado River project comprise the commission with Secretary Hoover as its government advisor and executive head.

At the recent Washington conference the commission met with delegates from Federal bureaus and departments. At that conference the importance of flood control was stressed above the project of irrigation and reclamation, the latter being the primary purpose of the project.

Arthur P. Davis of the United States reclamation service indicated Mr. Hoover's opinion that the river's annual overflow to be a menace to Imperial Valley and an important project.

Probably one of the important phases of the proposed program to be discussed in El Centro when the commission meets here, will be the proposed resolution by Commissioner W. S. Norvell of Arizona. That resolution, referred to a committee of the commission on the ground that it would provide for control of the Colorado River by the commission. It is warmly opposed by some members of the commission on the ground that it would jeopardize the irrigation facilities now used in Imperial Valley.

Preparations for the meeting of the commission here will soon be under way, it was said today.

INQUIRY AFTER DRY-LAW RAID.

and were leaving the store when Federal agents stopped them. They were taken to Flore's house. While there, Pete Tierce, accompanied by Marie Ferraro, the son of Antonio Ferraro, were driving in an automobile toward Los Angeles, when they were also stopped by Federal agents. On the way to the city, Tierce had picked up a man who gave his name as Joe Ricotto. According to Ricotto, the officer struck him and spat in his face for no apparent reason. The officers then took the two men and the boy to the Flore home, where, according to the charges, they endeavored to make the boy give them some information. The boy refused, and it is further asserted, handcuffs were placed on his hands and he was hung by the wrists to a curtain pole.

Flore, the witnesses declared, was next handcuffed and hung up by the wrists for fifteen minutes, while some of the officers beat him with the butts of their revolvers and with a blackjack. The witnesses stated that Flore was suspended so that only his toes touched the floor.

Flore was taken to the County Jail, then to the County Hospital and sent to the French Hospital, where he is said to be suffering from several fractured ribs and sprained wrists.

The matter was referred by Asst. U. S. Atty. Herron to Dist. Atty. Woolwine. The officer stated they had found a portion of a liquor still and a quantity of mash in Flore's home. Wheeler, the only officer thus far identified as a participant in the affair, stated last night that the Ferraro boy was taken to Juvenile Hall because during the fight on the night of the raid he was carrying a revolver.

The investigation will be continued today.

A conference was also held yesterday afternoon between Edward C. Yellowley, personal representative of Prohibition Commissioner Haynes, and Robert C. Avery, who has been in charge of prohibition enforcement in California since November 15. The conference chiefly involved the clashes of authority between Mr. Avery and State Prohibition Agent Mitchell, but also covered many phases of the incidents involving the enforcement of the national prohibition law in this district.

feared, they say, that Ruis had plotted the burglary for several days and had asked him to go in on it, as there was a pile of diamonds to be obtained without any danger of detection. They had reached a window by a ladder and for several hours occupied a room adjoining that in which Mrs. Ealand had retired. They waited for sleep to disarm their intended victim. They removed a quilt from a bed, wrapping themselves up to keep warm.

URGE HELP OF CHURCH FOR PEACE.

Resolutions Adopted by Episcopal Convention Are Mailed to President.

Resolutions adopted by the convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles commending President Harding for calling the disarmament conference and urging that the church support the movement for a warless world, were mailed yesterday to President Harding, Secretary of State Hughes and the two Senators from California.

The resolutions signed by Rev. Alfred Fletcher as secretary of the convention follow:

Whereas: Almighty God has put it into the heart of the President of the United States to call a conference of the nations in the interest of disarmament and world peace; therefore be it

Resolved, That this convention of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles, assembled in St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral on Jan. 28, 1922, hereby endorses the results so far attained by the Washington conference, believing them to be a long step forward toward the removal of international misunderstandings and the attainment of international peace and good will; and,

Whereas: The Bishop Coadjutor in his convention address referred to the "International Ideals of the churches," as set forth by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, to-wit:

"The Department of Social Service of the Presiding Bishop and Council has asked our prayerful consideration of the Declaration of Ideals and Policy looking toward a Warless World," adopted by the Federal Council of Churches. I would be remiss if I did not commend it to you and urge you to preach and teach the Christian Ideals therein expressed. One of the best ways of expressing our thankfulness to God for the conference on limitation of armament is to bear witness to the ideal of peace in our own sphere of influence.

"We realize," says the declaration, "that as churches it is not for us to define in detail the political methods and institutions by which the scourge of war shall be banished forever from civilized Christian nations. The determination of such details must be left to statesmen, jurists and legislators."

"But we maintain with firm conviction that it is right and the duty of the churches to declare in no doubtful terms the moral principles that are involved in international life, and to insist that our law-makers and all those who represent our nation in its international relations shall observe these principles with utmost care. We insist that the main issue shall be neither evaded nor obscured by discussion of details."

"These are the ideals:

"1. We believe that nations no less than individuals are subject to God's immutable moral law."

"2. We believe that nations achieve true welfare, greatness and honor only through just dealing and unselfish service."

"3. We believe that nations that regard themselves as Christians have special international obligations."

"4. We believe that the spirit of Christian brotherhood can remove every unjust barrier of trade, color, creed or race."

"5. We believe that Christian patriotism demands the practice of good will between nations."

"6. We believe that international policies should secure equal justice for all races."

"7. We believe that all nations should associate themselves permanently for world peace and good will."

"8. We believe in international law, and in the universal use of international courts of justice and boards of arbitration."

"9. We believe in a sweeping reduction of armaments by all nations."

"10. We believe in a warless world, and dedicate ourselves to its achievement."

Resolved, That this convention heartily endorses these ideals, and urges the clergy of this diocese to present them to their people;

And finally, be it

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent by the secretary of convention, to the President of the United States, the Secretary of State and the two Senators from California.

DIDN'T PAY ALIMONY, CHARGE OF EX-WIFE.

ANGELENO HELD IN OAKLAND FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE FOR DIVORCE.

John R. Hobrecher, Los Angeles business representative of a New York hardware firm, was arrested yesterday in Oakland on a complaint charging him with failure to provide. The complaint was sworn to by his former wife, Mrs. Carmelita Hobrecher, divorcee and society woman of Oakland, who received a divorce from him.

Mrs. Hobrecher's divorce suit, which surprised her many Los Angeles friends, contained many asserted instances of cruelty, one of which was that her husband had thrown a coffee pot at her. Their romance had begun when she ran away from a convent ten years ago to marry him.

In granting her a divorce the court allowed her $125 monthly as alimony.

Mrs. Hobrecher stated yesterday at the home of friends, 254 North Hoover street, that she had received any payments from him. She had come here to assist in the search for him, but upon her arrival she learned through Detective Sgt. Louis Canto that Mr. Hobrecher had been arrested in Oakland. She returned to her northern home last night to appear against him.

Introducing

a Complete and Radical Change of Policy and a Change of Name.

A Sale

Tomorrow 9 a. m.

Having changed our name from "Ghisi & Berry, Inc." to "Berry's, Inc.," established an entirely new policy, reorganized our personnel and revised our prices; we are now conducting the most remarkable sale of objets d'art ever held in the West.

Many of the pieces in our stock have been reduced to as much as ONE-HALF their former markings—in many instances the reductions are even more than HALF. Everything in each department is included—nothing is reserved. The articles displayed below offer merely a suggestion of the hundreds of unusual values now available:

The white Cap de Monte Candelabra, illustrated above, are suitable for console table or mantel. We have many other charming designs at a wide variance in prices—all offered at very unusual reduction. Candelabra are especially popular at this time in homes where furnishings and decorations are selected with care.

The lamp illustrated has been cut to one-half price. Its base is of powder blue with silk shade embodying a rich Chinese design in colors to match. Our showing of rare lamps of every description is one of the most comprehensive in the West.

The Mask—a dainty ivory and gold bronze figure on a white onyx base is illustrative of the many wonderful pieces of this character on our display floor. It is by the well known artist, Joe Decamp—now selling at a very material discount.

The Italian Majolica vase pictured above is of a dainty cream that it stands fifteen inches high. You will find it a real pleasure to inspect our large showing of vases in many sizes and authentic designs now at special sale reductions.

Pictured here are two pieces in the popular Wedgwood Pottery, Boston pattern, rich border decoration with beaded center. This is one of our many open stock patterns, sold in sets or by the single piece. This set of fifty pieces (for six persons), was $72.50, now priced at $37.50. Forty Million Dollars ($40,000,000)

This mighty sum represents the resources of the Hellman Commercial Trust and Savings Bank, but as the strength of a bridge cannot be measured by the tons of steel in its construction, so the strength of a bank cannot be stated in dollars alone.

The principles which guide this bank, the precedents on which it is founded, the experience, integrity, and sound judgment of its officers and directors—these make it strong and sure and enduring.

Perhaps not more than one depositor in a hundred knows of the millions which guard his savings, but every one is pleasantly aware of the night and day banking service which enables him to save both time and money.

You and Three Others May Pay the Price

Your dentist will tell you that four people out of every five past the age of forty have Pyorrhea. And thousands of younger persons are victims of this dangerous enemy.

Are your gums sore or tender? Do they bleed when you brush your teeth?

If so, go to your dentist at once and start using Forhan's For the Gums immediately.

For bleeding gums are an early symptom of Pyorrhea which quickly loosens the teeth, until they drop out or must be pulled, and causes poisonous pus pockets to which scientists trace many serious ailments.

You can prevent Pyorrhea, or arrest its course, by the consistent use of Forhan's For the Gums in sufficient time.

Brush your teeth with Forhan's twice a day or oftener. It will keep your teeth and gums in a healthy condition.

Remember—four out of five are caught by Pyorrhea because they are neglectful. Start using Forhan's For the Gums today. 5c and 60c tubes at your drugist's.

RUSSIANS HERE TO SEND FOOD.

Molokan Colony Will Aid Relatives at Home.

Ship Will Carry Out Relief Supplies This Month.

Donations Are Requested for Trans-Caucasia.

A shipment of food and supplies for the destitute relatives of 5000 Los Angeles Molokans will be sent to Trans-Caucasia on the 28th inst. Appeals for contributors of flour, beans, dried fruit, canned goods and new and old clothing are being issued by the Russian Molokan colony in Los Angeles, which has organized a committee to seek relief for their suffering families overseas.

Cash donations for the purchase of supplies for the Molokans will be received by The Times and acknowledged and forwarded to the Herbert Hoover Relief Commission. Contributions of food and clothing may be sent or taken to the warehouse of the Molokan relief committee, 173 South Utah street.

The Russian Molokans, now residents of Los Angeles, emigrated to this country fifteen years ago from Trans-Caucasia, particularly the area in the vicinity of Alexandropol and Kars on the border between Russia and Turkey, whether the Molokans had been banished by the Czar 100 years ago for nonparticipation in war.

H. Guy Talbot, Pacific Coast Regional Director of the Near East Relief, visited the stricken area several months ago. He stated yesterday the need of the Molokans could not be exaggerated; that they need assistance from the outside world until they can replace their crops, which were destroyed last year by the routed Turks. The campaign for funds and food is being conducted in co-operation with the Near East Relief.

Those in charge of the local campaign in the Molokan colony are William J. Samarin, J. A. Desapov, A. E. Rodometkin, A. Z. Shubin, I. G. Tolmosov and A. I. Mechkov. Committees have also been formed in Trans-Caucasia, which will distribute the supplies, consisting of Alex K. Mechkov and Michael G. Beerrukoff, at Erivan; Alex P. Bukret and Pavel P. Abakumoff, at Kars; Andrew G. Samarin, at Tiflis; and Ella T. Lebeschoff, at Baku.

IDENTITY LOST: ASKS FOR HELP.

Young Man Wants Police to Assist in Learning His Own Name and History.

"I think that I am 32 years of age. I am 5 feet 9 inches in height and weigh 130 pounds. My eyes are gray and I have blond hair. I believe that I was a soldier. If anyone can tell me who I am or where I live or anything about my past life, please telephone to the police."

This is what clean-cut young man who is held in the Receiving Hospital said yesterday afternoon. Police Surgeon Saverien, who examined the man, declared he is probably suffering from loss of memory.

Police records show that the mysterious young man was taken to the Receiving Hospital Tuesday night by Dr. R. Hardy of 150 North Hill street. Dr. Hardy informed the police surgeons that the young man had been brought to him by strangers who stated that they had discovered him wandering about on the streets.

Police detectives, police surgeons, nurses and newspaper men questioned the sad-eyed man for hours, but were unable to learn anything of his past. In a low voice and with a pained expression the patient told Dr. Saverien that he could remember nothing. He declared his mind was blank.

"I believe that I left my home about three weeks ago," stated the young man. "I am not sure of it, but something seems to tell me so. I can't remember a thing. I don't know where I have been working or what I have been doing. I don't know if I am married or single. I don't know where I have been or where I came from. My only wish is that some one will read my story in the newspaper and tell me who I am."

The patient is a member of the American Legion and E. E. Fox of Post No. 8 is making an investigation of the case.

THREAT TO KILL WIFE IS CHARGED

Husband Hurlled Child Across Room, is Complaint in Manlove Divorce Case.

Many acts of cruelty, including beatings and threats to kill, are charged in a divorce complaint filed yesterday by Mrs. Florence Manlove against Clifford Manlove.

The threats to end Mrs. Manlove's life and the beatings were frequent, according to the complaint. On one occasion, it is charged further, Mr. Manlove hurled one of his children across the room because of something the child did at the table.

The husband made a hobby of automobiles, it is stated, and frequently kept members of his family up until 2 o'clock in the morning while he worked on his cars. He used his wife as a mechanic, the complaint recites, and kept her in the garage to hand him his tools.

The complaint states that the couple were married in 1905 and separated in July, 1920. It is stated also that Mr. Manlove gave his wife but one dress. On one occasion, he threw water on his wife while she lay in bed, it is charged, and the bedroom was drenched. A. G. Kelly is attorney for Mrs. Manlove.

HOLLYWOOD A.C. PLANS COMPLETED.

Two-Story Structure to be Built at Hudson Avenue and Sunset Boulevard.

Plans for the first men's club building to be erected in Hollywood, the new Hollywood Athletic Club, have been completed, and work on the structure, which is to be located at the northeast corner of Hudson avenue and Sunset Boulevard, will be started in the near future. This site, purchased by the organization several months ago, has a frontage of 100 feet on Sunset Boulevard, with a depth of 187 feet on Hudson avenue.

The building, which will be two stories in height, has been designed by Meyer & Holler, the Milwaukee Building Company, after the Italian villa style of architecture, which both the architects and officials of the Athletic Club are particularly adapted to this country.

The main entrance will be from the boulevard side and will give immediate access to the check rooms, dining-rooms, lounge, gymnasium and to the game rooms, which will be located on the second floor. The second floor, according to present plans, will also contain the balcony, overlooking the gymnasium and private dining-rooms, with kitchenette service. Other features of the new club building will include a cafe, showers, barber shop, manicure parlor and one of the finest swimming tanks, it is claimed, on the Pacific Coast.

The kitchen, store rooms and heating plant will be located in the basement. Officers of the organization are: Frank E. Gallows, president; George E. Eastman, vice-president; Fred Smith, vice-president; Norman McMillan, treasurer; P. A. Hartman, secretary; R. Dexter and J. B. Irsfeld, general counsel, and Joseph W. McClellan, publicity director.

Divorce Helps Business for Transfer Man.

Lawyers are not the only ones who benefit by broken homes.

The man who moves household goods finds a broken home a source of profit.

In Judge Summerfield's court yesterday Claude W. Ware, a witness in the divorce action of Janet B. Tracy against Thomas O. Tracy, Mr. Tracy was charged with cruelty and Mrs. Tracy was given the decree.

Mr. Ware testified he was sent for by Mrs. Tracy to remove her household goods. While he was packing up a bowl, Mr. Tracy wanted to know where the bowl was going.

"Unpack it," he said to Mr. Ware. "I am the one to say what leaves this house."

"Yes, sir," said Mr. Ware, "divorces and moving go hand in hand. It is an important adjunct to the moving business."

Mr. Ware, advertising manager for Bullock's, who returned yesterday from a tour of eastern cities, declared that the appeal of Southern California climate, even under the present conditions, is more strong than ever.

Mr. Holt visited Chicago, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, New York and other big centers and found business in no place so good as in Los Angeles. "It is true," said Mr. Holt, "that manufacturers usually will like to move, but the ever increasingly beautiful weaves may account for it."

Speaking of styles, Mr. Holt said he observed no lessening of skirts for street wear, and in the larger cities, a strange feature was the wearing of low shoes or pumps, which were usually well made and high galoshes or arctic overshoes, worn unbuttoned, giving an exceedingly unkempt appearance to the feet and ankles.

ALFRED EASTER, ICE CREAM MAKER, DIES.

RETIRED MANUFACTURER WAS ORGANIZER OF GREAT DETROIT FIRM.

Alfred Easter, one of the most prominent dairymen and ice cream manufacturers in the United States, formerly of Detroit, died yesterday at his home, 638 South Catalina street, after an illness of two weeks. He came here in 1913, retiring from business life, but investing in two apartment houses and other real estate in Los Angeles.

Mr. Easter was born in England in September, 1844, coming to this country in 1862 and settling in Detroit in 1870. He was a pioneer in the dairy industry in Michigan, and in 1890 formed the Detroit Creamery Company by merging fourteen creameries and ice cream companies in that city. He was general manager for fourteen years, in which time the company became "one of the largest in the world, establishing farms at Mt. Clemens, Mich.

Mr. Easter was a Knight Templar, Scottish Rite Mason and Shriner. He leaves a widow, Catherine P. Easter, and four children—Ephraim B. Easter of Lancaster, Cal.; Mrs. Otto Goerke, Mrs. Thomas Marriott and Mrs. Herbert Todd, all of Detroit. Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. at the Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Cemetery.

SUCCESS OF TANLAC DUE TO MERIT ALONE

Personal Recommendation of Celebrated Medicine by Persons It Has Restored to Health Is the Chief Reason for Its Tremendous Sale.

Not a day passes but what thousands of people ask the question: "What's Tanlac? Why do we hear so much about it? The answer to these questions is not difficult. Tanlac, Nature's Medicine, is a wonderful Reconstructive Tonic and body builder. It is purely vegetable and is made from the most beneficial roots, herbs and barks known to science. The medicinal properties are readily taken up by the system, thereby aiding digestion, stimulating the appetite and restoring the stomach in controlling the food into nourishing elements that build up tissue and nerve strength. There is probably not a single portion of the body that is not benefited by the helpful action of this remarkable medicine.

The system, besides being purified and strengthened by Tanlac, is used up and invigorated. It quickly overcomes indigestion, nervousness, headache, backache, general debility and many other complaints that are so common to the thousands of half sick, depressed men and women.

Tanlac was designed primarily for the correction of disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. At the same time, as stated above, it is a powerful Reconstructive Medicine, for it naturally follows that any medicine that brings about proper assimilation of the food and the thorough elimination of waste products must, therefore, have a far reaching and most beneficial effect upon the entire system.

Probably eighty per cent of all diseases originate in the digestive organs. Dyspepsia, or what is more commonly known as indigestion, is not only one of the most prevalent, but is one of the most difficult to treat of all present-day diseases, and has for years baffled the skill of leading specialists. It is almost always followed by a complication of diseases. One of the first is torpid liver with biliousness, followed by headache, coated tongue, dizzy spells, pain in the back, palpitation of the heart, and other distressing symptoms. Soon other organs of the body become involved, and various diseases develop and become chronic if not checked in time. The first symptoms of stomach disorder, such as gas, sourness, constipation, foul breath, fullness after eating, pain in the stomach, headache, tired-out feeling, lack of energy, should be the signal for prompt and decisive action.

Tens of thousands of men and women of all ages and in all walks of life, afflicted with stomach and liver disorders, some of them of long standing as well as thousands of weak, thin, nervous men and women, apparently on the verge of collapse, have testified publicly that they have been fully restored to the enjoyment of perfect health by taking Tanlac. Tens of thousands have not only been relieved of the most obstinate forms of dyspepsia and indigestion by Tanlac, but many have reported a remarkable and rapid return to normal health and strength. That is the reason Tanlac continued year after year, to have the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world.

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles by The Owl Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

"BILLIE RHODES" ASKS DIVORCE.

Cinema Actress Charges Her Husband With Cruelty.

Ousted from Hotel Room, She Says in Complaint.

Left Fortune When "Smiling Billy" Parsons Died.

"Billie Rhodes," cinema actress and widow of the late "Smiling Billy" (William) Parsons, film man, and known in private life as Lavita Jobelmann, yesterday filed a divorce action here against William H. Jobelmann, publicity manager for a number of theaters in the northern part of the State. Mrs. Jobelmann's complaint contains a number of sensational charges and a request of an awarded offer by the husband to give her a divorce for $10,000.

According to the complaint, Mr. Jobelmann treated his wife in a cruel and brutal manner. He threatened, it is charged, on a number of occasions to disfigure her so that she would be unable to appear on the screen again. He beat her on occasions and one morning, it is charged, he ousted her from their hotel room in San Francisco. This occurred at 5 o'clock with the fog rolling in.

Mr. Jobelmann treated his wife's friends with contempt. It is charged, and often insulted her before them. He was intemperate, and one day when he came home intoxicated, he made a violent attack upon his wife's private goods and took a bottle of prewar liquor, she charges. The complaint was prepared by Attorney Harry A. Chamberlain.

Miss Rhodes entered pictures here some years ago and was a comedy star for some time. While she was playing in a company owned by "Smiling Billy" Parsons, she met the film magnate. She later starred her in several productions and then married him.

Miss Rhodes attained fame as "The Blind Girl" when, during the war, she portrayed the part of a Salvation Army girl. Mr. Parsons and Miss Rhodes had not been married long when the magnate-comedian died. He left the bulk of his estate, which is said to have been very large, to his wife.

STARVATION IS FACED IN SNOW.

Legion Rescue Party Finds Autoist in Cabin.

Forest Ranger Brings Cold and Hungry to Hut.

Father Gives Coat to Child; Death Lurks.

(SPECIAL REPORT.)
BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 1.—An account of the desperate battle waged to save the lives of his wife and 4-year-old boy when the three were trapped with death from the piercing cold and raging snowstorm that has swept the mountains of the South Coast Range during the past five days, was given here today by D. E. Nickel of 630 Truxton avenue, Bakersfield.

Harrowing scenes with death by freezing or starving seemed imminent, the horrors when mounting cold all but paralyzed their faculties and the fear of fate when it was discovered that shelter was only a few rods away hidden by the swirling snow of snow were revealed in his story.

When by the efforts of his ordeal, Mr. Nickel recounted the details of his experience. With his wife and baby he was left Los Angeles by automobile Sunday. After driving over the summit against a blizzard Mr. Nickel continued his way down into Sanbars. Here efforts were made to detain him, but he, on getting back to Bakersfield, he drove on.

The worst was not encountered until after the car had descended the big hill north of Sanbars and started on to Bakersfield. Then the wind and storm assailed the travelers.

Six hours elapsed in backing three and a half miles of road drifted in. Gasoline was running short in the car. Mr. Nickel held on for several hours in the middle of the night, when the little car stopped.

Mr. Nickel kept his engine running. The automobile, cold was beginning to assert itself and he took off his overcoat and wrapped it around the child. They had no food. The child spent the night solidly in white; they appeared isolated, while the snow fell fast.

Other motorists had been halted behind the Nickel car. Their predicament was no less harrowing. Without his protective outer garment, Mr. Nickel suffered; his hand, arms and feet as the chilling air pierced him.

RANGER FINDS TOURISTS.
Hope was about to be extinguished when help arrived from an entirely unexpected quarter. Ranger E. C. De Lapp, whose cabin was only a short distance away, had sight of which had been preceded by reason of the darkness of the storm, appeared and offered his abode for the party.

Mr. Nickel stepped from the car and attempted to lift his baby, but that he might carry it to the station. His arms failed him and he all but collapsed on the spot. With the ranger carrying the child and assisting Mr. Nickel and his wife, the party plowed its way to the cabin.

Mr. Nickel and his wife, exhausted and almost frozen, were reanimated after hours of work by the ranger.

The child was saved by the father's cost.

They were found by the ranger at 5:30 o'clock in the morning. It was unable to offer them food, as his own supply had been exhausted. His supply of firewood was small and only a tiny blaze was kept going.

Other tourists from twenty-nine states came were brought to the cabin at intervals. All were suffering from the pangs of hunger and cold. All day Monday and Monday night the party remained in the hut.

The first bite that had passed their lips since Sunday was given them Tuesday at 5 a.m. The food was brought in by a rescue party of American Legion members from Bakersfield and men from Lebec and the Bakersfield people in the rescue parties which have been working through the deep snow since Sunday.

Among the Bakersfield people in the rescue parties which have been working through the deep snow since Sunday were: Vernon J. J. Wagon, F. E. Parland, Jack Lane, Adjutant of the Bakersfield post of the American Legion, A. Hawkins of the Automobile Club of Southern California; Paul Little, L. H. Davis, and J. H. Summington, High Master, Yummy Lodge, Tolly Owens, Orin H. Owens, R. L. Luck, Jess Elder, Harry T. Shirley and Glen Roberts.

SUPPLY OF GAS AGAIN IMPROVES.

Pressure Reported for Some Districts Almost Normal, Says Official.

Gas pressure throughout the city and environs improved throughout yesterday and the number of complaints, relative to lack of fuel for domestic purposes, received at the office of the gas companies and the State Railroad Commission was markedly less than on the preceding days of the week.

The Southern California Gas Company, which supplies much of the southwestern district, the Wilshire section, Beverly Hills and Glendale reported at 5 p.m. yesterday that service on its mains was practically normal. This company, which is connected with the Midway Gas Company, brings in natural gas from the latter's wells north of Los Angeles and, when emergency arises, the natural product from its high pressure mains into service distribution pipes which connect.

A. E. Macbeth, general manager of the Midway and Southern California Gas companies, stated late yesterday that the latter corporation had ceased the making of artificial gas for the benefit of its competitor, the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company, during the preceding three days, had exceeded its possible output for fuel purposes. The reserve machinery of the Southern California Gas Company's plant was idle yesterday for the first time since Saturday.

Through a check made on a large number of Class A office buildings of the city it was ascertained yesterday that the most without exception are heated by oil-burning furnaces. The temperatures in the rooms of these buildings have been comfortable. It was reported, throughout the cold weather of the past days. The new office building and factory of the Brownstein-Louis Company, a Eighth and Figueroa streets, is a notable exception to the structure heated by means of oil. The latest and most improved type of gas-heating plant was installed when this building was completed less than three months ago.

The Brownstein-Louis Company said yesterday, through a representative, that the gas furnace, which is heated by means of oil, is the latest and most improved type of gas-heating plant was installed when this building was completed less than three months ago.

SNOW BLOCKADE NEARLY BROKEN.

parties who have been along the line.

Carl E. McFadden, field secretary of the Auto Club, placed his estimate at 500 cars. Mr. De la Cruz, telephone company, who also was on the scene early in the work, says that eighty persons were stranded at Sanbars and eighty more at Caswell. At least forty were at the National Forest Inn, he said, twenty-five at Kelly's and many more at Bailey's and other points along the highway.

Several large truck loads of food, fuel and blankets were sent out during the day by the Auto Club. The telephone company's large four-wheel drive trucks were adding materially to breaking the drifts. The Motor Transit Company also was using trucks to aid in fighting through the snow.

From Lebec on far south as Gorman's it was estimated by Mr. McFadden's reports from the Bakersfield office of the club, 100 persons were rescued.

ROAD STILL CLOSED.

Yesterday's bulletin from the Automobile Club contained the information that the inland route to San Diego is still closed because of washouts, and that Tropicana Canyon road and Cajon Pass road are still blocked either by snow or landslides. Long Beach Boulevard, which had been closed for several days on account of a bridge being out, may be open soon. It was reported last night. The bridge is being repaired.

The Arroyo Seco Road, closed since the heavy rains several weeks ago, was reported reopened yesterday when a crew of fifty men employed by the county road department completed temporary repairs of all washed-out sections of the highway to within a half mile of Oak Wild Camp.

STREAMS BRIDGED.

For the benefit of hikers, paths beyond the point where the road is completed have been equipped with logs and planks and at one point a high-cable suspension bridge has been erected through the cooperation of the road department and L. E. Austin, manager of Switzer's Camp. In the upper end of Arroyo Seco.

TWO MEN RESCUED.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 1.—That between thirty-five and forty persons, who were caught in the blizzard during the past few days, were being rescued from a small cabin near the Adelanto road, where they had been stranded since the storm for forty-eight hours without food. Efforts are being made to break a road through the Cajon Pass by the State and county highway crews.

YOUTHS HELD at Harbor in Postal Theft.

Confessing, police say, to the robbery of a private box in the harbor postoffice, from which he obtained several thousand dollars in checks addressed to the Outer Harbor Dock and Wharf Company, a youth, giving the name of Walter Brown, and his home as Arizona, was being held late yesterday afternoon for the Federal authorities.

Leo Smith, 19, a harbor youth was held as Brown's arrested accomplice. Brown, the police say, was identified by bank officials at Gardena and Wilmington as the youth who deposited checks at both places last week. Accounts with them at Gardena a check for $12,000 payable to the Outer Harbor Dock and Wharf Company, was deposited and at Wilmington the check to the amount of $25,000, drawn in favor of the San Pedro Lumber Company, were deposited by Brown, the police say.

In Brown's room at a harbor hotel, police say they found several other checks belonging to the Outer Harbor Dock and Wharf Company, together with monthly statements and business correspondence, taken from the stolen letters. In addition a quantity of jewelry and other articles were found in Brown's possession, the police said. It is said by police to have admitted that they were sent last taken by him in a series of burglaries at the harbor.

GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY ASKS APPROVAL OF STATE COMMISSION.

Application was made yesterday to the State Railroad Commission by the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company for permission to issue $2,000,000 par value of common stock, the same to be placed on the market at not less than $11.3. No date for hearing the petition has been set by the commission. Regarding the use to which the funds obtained from the sale of the stock will be dedicated, in the event the commission grants the application, General Manager Baughn of the lighting company said yesterday:

"The money represents but a small part of the investment the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company contemplates making during 1922. Funds are already on our desk which call for an expenditure of between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 in improvements and extensions of the city's enormous gas and electric systems. The city's enormous gas and electric systems during the past few years have been extended but we are not bringing our equipment to the highest point of efficiency in order to keep pace with demand. The company spent more than $1,000,000 in improvements and extensions of its gas and electric service during 1921, only to be confronted, at the beginning of the present winter, with requirements larger than had been anticipated or than could be met on the spot. A large sum of money has already been spent since January 1 for additional equipment and our investment will go steadily forward during the coming months."

I won't carry throat germs to those at home

All day long in the office or shop, in the car, the crowded street, you have been breathing in germs of colds, influenza, throat, and other ailments. In the warm crevices of throat and mouth they multiply rapidly.

The Formamint lozenges may be less able than you to resist these germs of ill-health and the home-coming kiss may bear the dread germ of disease.

A pleasant-tasting, easily-dissolved lozenge, which is the most effective germ-fighting throat lozenge, keeps germ-growth within bounds, and forestalls colds and influenza.

If the throat is already sore, the frequent use of Formamint keeps the membranes bathed in this splendid antiseptic, allays inflammation, prevents new infection and gives the throat a chance to heal.

Children are glad to use them and should do so freely, as reported by many parents. Formamint is the germ-fighting throat lozenge.

Formamint is sold by all druggists and health food stores.

If You Were to Follow Your Washing Through Our Laundries

Follow your family bundle through our laundries; trace all of the interesting operations required to return to you clothes so sweetly clean, so beautifully bright.

You'll find the secret of our magic in simple, homely methods, coupled with thoroughness and a scientific knowledge of fabrics and their treatment.

We resort to no short-cuts to produce the effects you so greatly admire.

There's no mystery in pure, rainsoft water and mild, white soap; in repeated rinsing in crystal-clear water; in the choice dyes and careful finishing processes we use.

They are methods your mother and your grandmother know. Only we have systematized and refined them; replaced guess work with certainty, and substituted ingenious modern equipment for the back-breaking, clothes-wracking washboard, wringer and clothes line.

If you can't come to see for yourself, send your bundle—it will tell you of all these things when it comes home, sweet and clean.

Give our better wash-way a trial this week. Telephone one of the modern steam laundries in your community.

TO VIEW SITE OF AUTO CAMP.

New Location Suggested in Griffith Park.

Hundred and Fifty Acres to be Inspected.

Commissioner Will Head
Officials' Trip Today.

The first definite step to establish an adequate municipal automobile camp grounds for tourists, with hotel service and rest cottages, is scheduled to be taken today when city officials, headed by Park Commissioner Griffith, will personally inspect 150 acres of land in Griffith Park which has been suggested as a site for the camp. This land is located at the end of Commonwealth avenue, and should the city establish the camp there, gas, electricity, water and telephone service can be furnished at once to the campers.

The Chamber of Commerce, Automobile Club of Southern California and other business and civic organizations have long urged the City Council to provide Los Angeles with a municipal camp grounds for automobile tourists that will be adequate to meet the demands from visitors who arrive here in their machines. Denver and a number of California cities have municipal camp grounds which widely advertise their existence and are the means of bringing to them a large number of automobile tourists each year. Mr. Griffith stated yesterday:

LET'S CAMP SMALL.

Automobile tourists now arriving in Los Angeles first apply to the small city-owned camp in Elstyan Park, which has a maximum capacity of only eighty cars. The facilities, such as electricity, gas and water and other services, are excellent but literally thousands of tourists are turned away each year on account of the lack of room. Mr. Griffith continued. A charge of $5 cents a day is made for each machine parked in the camp, and this small fee has made it self-supporting. To establish a new adequate camping grounds on city-owned land, the City Council would advance the funds for the equipment, which would be returned from the fees charged, which was the method adopted when the Elstyan Park camp was created. The success of this camp has proved the necessity for the establishment of a camp grounds which would meet the city's needs and would fill a long-felt want in the city's attractions.

"The camp that I hope the city will establish," said Griffith, "will be one which gives our visitors access to the new, improved, beautiful sections of Los Angeles. The present Elstyan Park camp, though small, is a model one, with the exception that our visitors are forced to leave the camp and go to the city for their view of the city's attractions."

ATTRACTIVE LOCATION.

"The new camp should be located in an attractive part of the city, and we plan to make it a camp de luxe, the finest in the United States, and one that will advertise the city throughout the country. Visitors will be provided with service that will make their stay as comfortable as if they were in a hotel."

Accompanying Commissioner Griffith on the Griffith Park trip are, expected to be Councilmen Allan Conaway and Langston of the City Council's Public Welfare Committee; G. Gordon Whitnall, secretary of the City Planning Commission; representatives of the City Health and Playgrounds departments, as all these departments are working together to obtain the best possible site for the camp grounds and to provide it with facilities second to none among similar automobile camp grounds of the country. The Griffith Park site, while it will be the first one inspected, has not been definitely chosen, but the city officials will look over all sites suggested, to the end that the best one will be finally chosen. It is planned to put in equipment at first to accommodate 100 machines, and later to enlarge the facilities to provide for 200 automobiles or more, so that the site finally chosen will be a large one.

FLINT AT HEAD OF JOHNSON COMMITTEE.

Ex-Senator Frank P. Flint will be the general chairman of the campaign to be made by Hiram Johnson for re-election to the United States Senate this fall, according to an announcement made last night. Mr. Flint issued a statement in which he gave Johnson credit for the fact that "the Southern California has been the 'white spot' in the national map of industrial business depression, for the tariff adjustments on California products, for the soldiers' bonus bill, etc."

PAIN GONE! RUB SORE, RHEUMATIC ACHING JOINTS

Stop "dosing" rheumatism. It's pain only. St. Jacob's Oil stop any pain, and not one rheumatism case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating St. Jacob's Oil right on the tender spot, and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain and distress. St. Jacob's Oil is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappoints, and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones, stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuralgia. Limber up! Get a small trial bottle of old-time, honest St. Jacob's Oil from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.—[Advertisement.]

ENGLISH WOMAN LEADER SPEAKS.

Militant Suffragist Has Quit "Fire-Eating."

Miss Pankhurst No Longer Fights Policemen.

Tells City Club She Now is "Victorious Politician."

Swatting London policemen and resting days and nights in British jails were the great outdoor and indoor sport of Miss Christabel Pankhurst in antisuffrage days before the World War, but if the record-breaking crowd which gathered at the City Club at noon yesterday expected to hear a fire-eating "votes for women" talk from the young English woman,

BEAUTY QUEST SECRET OUT.

Girl Who Won in Another Southern California City Contest Enters for "Times" Prize.

Here is a secret just for you. This is a beauty secret, or to be a little more explicit, it is a secret about a beauty. Did you know of course you didn't or this would not be imparting a secret—that there is an entrant in The Times Beauty Quest, who at one time was the winner in a beauty contest staged in one of the big cities in Southern California. The photograph of this beauty winner has already been published in The Times within the last week.

With all of these facts you can guess just as well as anybody else who the beauty is, and where she resides. It might be added, as a part of the secret, that the girl does not live in Los Angeles. The subject around which this secret centers is an entrant at this time in a decidedly broader field, and there will be an entirely different board of artists to render final decision. The Beauty Quest, Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles, Cal.

The photograph must be blank, properly filled out. These blanks will be printed daily in The Times until the contest ends. (5) All entrants must be single (never married).

(4) All professional beauticians are barred, i. e., those whose beauty is their principal means of livelihood, as actresses, models, etc.

(3) Each entrant must be a resident of the zone from which her photograph is entered.

(2) No photographs can be returned. Do not send stamps.

(1) A person may submit the names of more than one young woman as entrants, but the permission of each must be obtained and the entries must be made separately.

(6) Employees of The Times and members of their families are barred.

- (1) City of Los Angeles.
- (2) Los Angeles county outside of the city.
- (3) The counties of San Diego, Imperial, Orange and Riverside.
- (4) The counties of Inyo, San Bernardino, Kings and Tulare.
- (5) The counties of Santa Barbara, Ventura, Kern and San Luis Obispo.
- (6) The State of Arizona.

Prizes will be awarded in each zone as follows:
First, $500.
Second, $100.
Third, $50.

HERE ARE THE RULES.
The rules of the Beauty Quest follow:

(1) Send one—and only one—photograph, mailing it as early as possible, but in any case so it will be postmarked before 12 o'clock midnight, February 22.

(2) The photograph must be blank, properly filled out. These blanks will be printed daily in The Times until the contest ends.

(3) Each entrant must be a resident of the zone from which her photograph is entered.

DESERTED HER, DATE UNKNOWN

Mrs. Elsie Kelly Decides Two Years After Husband Left, He's Gone.

One day after Charles R. Kelly married Elsie Kelly he deserted her. But it took Mrs. Kelly more than two and a half years to make up her mind that he had gone for good, according to a complaint for divorce filed yesterday.

The complaint, which was filed by Attorneys Rudolph & Warner, states that the couple were married July 15, 1919, and separated the next day. The complaint charges extreme cruelty, but does not state its nature.

Gustave Luders, Consul for the Mexican government at Los Angeles, carbon copy of which is herewith submitted.

LETTER TO LUDERS.

In this letter Miller says that his associate, E. F. Lamborn, called at the consulate the preceding week, outlined the plan for a meeting at which the Chapala scheme would be explained and met with a "heartily response" from the consulate, which the letter says undertook to arrange details for the meeting here, including tickets, invitations, music, a speech, etc.

Miller says he reserved 300 seats for the Mexican guests and advertised the meeting, etc. He says he called at Mr. Luders's office himself and was impressed with the consul's cordiality. The same evening, the letter continues, Mr. Luders told Mr. Lamborn that the Mexican government had forbidden him to take any part in the meeting. The letter continues to describe the meeting as a great success. He charges that "The Times" article was inspired by Mr. Luders. He says that Gen. Obregon and Minister of Education Vasconcelos have both received him and enthusiastically endorsed his project.

Continuing, he says: "If there has been any change in their attitude of mind it has been brought about by men of sinister design who are tools of interests in this country that I am exposing or by your compatriots, who have asked for university funds without giving adequate return." Concluding, the letter quotes an order purporting to have been issued by Gen. Obregon to all his departments barring speculation in lands contiguous to the supposed Lake Chapala grant.

Miller's statement to The Times then continues:

"Your designed exposé will constitute an 'snag' toward the establishment of the Chapala University, but in any way interfere with its going forward along lines proposed, but it has been a very fortunate thing for local interests."

Mr. Miller then takes up his plan to raise $50,000 for disabled soldiers. This money, he explains, was to be raised by a course of lectures at $50 each. Had the newspapers given him support and publicity, Miller says, he would have experienced no difficulty in getting a class of 1000, which, at $50 each, would have yielded $50,000. The Times' story on the Chapala University, Miller says, "quite naturally made it impossible for me to go forward with the work on a large scale."

The result was that Miller, at a loss of $3000 advanced for expenses, Miller then declares he will go ahead with the work and raise the money for the soldiers in some other way. Mr. Luders, when told of Mr. Miller's statement and his intimations, said:

"I do not care to enter into any public controversy with Mr. Miller. I have given the facts several days ago. I can see no reason for writing me the letter. So far as this office is concerned, Mr. Miller is a closed incident. The conduct of this office in the future will be governed by the closing sentence in Governor Obregon's telegram to an associate of Mr. Miller, as follows: 'Permit me to make known to you that in the future I shall refrain from answering such idle messages as were the last addressed to me and for which I can find no explanation.'"

ABOUT LIANO DEL RIO.
The Liano del Rio co-operative colony, organized in Antelope Valley some years ago by ex-Harmon, Socialist, was a co-operative community. Its plan of financial organization differed from that of the proposed Chapala City Beautiful project, as announced by Miller, in that the residents in the colony were to be paid $4 a day instead of given credit in the colony bank.

Both was obtainable through payment of a large initial sum. The chief difference between it and Miller's project appears to be that the Liano colony was socialistic and the City Beautiful is to be psychological, and that there will be no money used under the Miller regime.

So far The Times has purposely refrained from publishing details of the "unfavorable publicity" to which Miller refers. Such reference as has been made to the subject was based on the events in his career described by Miller as "more or less unfortunate."

The Times has obtained first-hand information on the subject.

FEAR FOUL PLAY IN DEATH OF SOLDIER.

POLICE NOT CONVINCED THAT PRIVATE JOHNSON KILLED HIMSELF.

Police yesterday continued to investigate the death of Private Norman Johnson, 22 years of age, whose body was found last Monday morning in a room in the Continental Hotel. While it was first believed that the soldier had committed suicide, the police yesterday declared that foul play is suspected.

A revolver was found by the body with one shell expended and police surgeons stated that Johnson died from a bullet wound in the brain.

The police yesterday learned that a strange telegram found in the dead man's room had no connection with the death. Miss Mildred Richardson of 911 Appleton street, Long Beach, to whom the message was addressed, called at Central Police Station and explained that she had never met the dead man and that the telegram was sent to her by a friend who had occupied the same room several days before. A copy of the telegram was left by the friend in the room, where it was found by the searching police detectives.

AUTO KILLS AGED MAN.

Accident Unavoidable, Says Driver Held in City Jail.

D. W. Keisacker, 78 years old, 237 North Figueroa street, was killed last night when he was struck down at Figueroa and First streets by an automobile driven by Nick Plocerillo, 3224 Woodlawn avenue.

Mr. Plocerillo was placed in the City Jail on a charge of manslaughter. He said the accident was unavoidable. He told Detectives Vary and Cowan that the elderly man stepped out from the curb directly in front of his machine.

He also expressed the hope that the differences between France and England would be ironed out. Principally, the speaker was interested in getting over the message, that men do not live by bread alone and that materialism and industrial success will not in themselves enable the world to advance.

"Industrial growth is all very well," said Miss Pankhurst, "but we cannot live solely by taking in each other's washing. Politics will not enable us to reach our goal. Politics is a dirty business, and I, as a victorious politician, know what I am talking about."

The world needs a religious revival, for it is only by taking spiritual counsel that the world is going forward to a solution of these problems, that confront us during this trying period."

Poslam
soon clears a bad complexion
Over night you can see the benefit of Poslam and Poslam Soap to simply, blotchy complexions. Their gentle, healing medicine seems to be the very thing needed to stop those annoying blemishes. And with the skin once clear again, the regular use of Poslam Soap is usually enough to keep it charmingly healthy. Poslam Soap is especially for the hair, too. It checks dandruff.

Men Who Refused Award of Judge Landis Try to Get Closed Shop.

Committee Stands Behind Those Willing to Stand on Agreement.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—The bid for the anti-labor group of unions, on a basis of the award wage scales and conditions and a closed shop for all workmen was met with a prompt refusal by the citizens' committee to enforce the Landis award, which is affected by the refusal.

The committee held that such a statement would be manifestly unfair to the thousands of open-shop workmen who have been suffering in the last few months, and that the building public, to whom the committee stands pledged to secure a permanent solution.

TERMS ARE REFUSED. The strike by the oilfield workers in the building trades was not settled on the terms proposed by the Citizens' committee, which is a body under the leadership of T. S. PLACE DISASTER BLAME.

Senate Committee Finds Poor Engineering and Faulty Construction Caused Theater Tragedy.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Bad engineering, coupled with cheap and faulty construction, was held responsible for the collapse of the roof of the Elks theater, which resulted in the death of nearly 100 lives.

Senator Capper, who as a member of the Senate committee, introduced legislation providing for Senate investigation of the disaster, was commended in his inspection of the scene by Senators Jones, Washington, Gooding, Idaho; and Shepard, Texas, all members of the committee, and Representative Upshaw, of Georgia, who also was present. "The disaster was caused by poor engineering and faulty construction which would not have existed had licensed engineers or architects been employed," said Senator Capper.

OFFICIALS RESPONSIBLE. The Kansas Senator said District of Columbia officials who approved the plans for the construction of the theater were responsible for the disaster. "The building was a shanty," said Senator Capper, "and the disaster was caused by poor engineering and faulty construction which would not have existed had licensed engineers or architects been employed."

THE DAY'S NEWS SUMMED UP.

THE SKY. Clear. Wind at 5 miles per hour, velocity 5 miles per hour. Forecast: For Los Angeles and vicinity: Thursday, clear, with a shower or two of rain on Friday. For the rest of the state: Thursday, clear, with a shower or two of rain on Friday.

THE CITY. Attacked by a burglar, Mrs. C. J. Dickey, a woman of Santa Barbara, was held up and robbed of her purse and money. The burglar was seen running away from the scene.

THE STATE. A fire broke out in a warehouse in the city of Los Angeles, and the fire department was called to the scene. The fire was quickly extinguished, and no one was injured.

THE NATION. A bill was introduced in the House of Representatives, providing for the establishment of a new department of the interior. The bill was passed by a majority vote.

THE WORLD. A large earthquake shook the city of San Francisco, California, and many buildings were damaged. The earthquake was felt throughout the state.

THE FUTURE. A new book, "The Future of the World," has been published by a leading author. The book discusses the future of the world and the role of the individual.

CAPITAL OR HICKVILLE?

No Laws Protect Citizens.

Washington Depends Only on Sun and Heaven to Clean Streets.

Statesmen Who Want to Run World Joke Running City.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Washington barely is beginning to recover from the first effects of the theater tragedy of last Saturday night, in which some scores were killed and other scores injured, and with recovery is coming an avalanche of criticism of the manner in which city affairs are conducted.

The instant the news of the tragedy was received, Congressmen blamed the municipal officials. The blame quickly was passed back. One or two members of the House said that the crashing of the theater roof was an act of providence, and therefore nobody was to blame.

LAXITY OF AFFAIRS. Some of the lawmakers here from outside cities say that is a laxity of affairs which affects municipal life in Washington. They would not be contented in any other city in the United States, even in those against which the charge of bad government has been laid. So far as the collapse of the roof is concerned, tonight, however, they expected to treat directly with China over possible retirement from the leased territory at Kwang Chow Wan, a decision which appeared to be clouded the prospect of any general conference agreement regarding Chinese leased territories.

Two other conference projects, one relating to the Chinese Eastern Railway and the other to the prohibition of importation of arms into China also encountered serious obstacles when the committee considered them. The Japanese made some technical objections to the Chinese Eastern Railway project, which was coupled with Chinese and French opposition to some features, resulting in appointment of a Japanese-French-Chinese subcommittee.

POWERS GIVE ASSENT TO FIVE-POWER NAVAL PACT.

Two Treaties Limiting Navies and Restricting Agencies of Warfare Approved.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The Washington negotiations for limitation of armament reached their consummation today when a plenary session of the Arms Conference gave definite and public approval to two treaties limiting navies and restricting use of new agencies of warfare.

One covenant, thus sealed after eleven weeks of debate, establishes a fixed ratio of capital ships' strength between the five great powers and the other pledges them against unrestricted submarine warfare and use of poison gas. Within a day or two the plenipotentiaries of the United States, Great Britain, Japan, France and Italy will formally affix their signatures.

At the same session the Far Eastern wing of the conference announced officially the terms of the Shantung settlement and gave final approval to nine of the resolutions adopted in regard to Chinese problems. The agreement on Shantung already has been put into a draft treaty between Japan and China and other Far Eastern settlements are to be embodied in at least two general conventions which will come before the conference shortly.

BRITAIN TO WITHDRAW. When Japan's intention to withdraw from Shantung had been definitely stated, the British announced formally for the first time that their government was ready to hand back to China the leasehold of Wei-Hai-Wei. The French let it be known, tonight, however, that they expected to treat directly with China over possible retirement from the leased territory at Kwang Chow Wan, a decision which appeared to be clouded the prospect of any general conference agreement regarding Chinese leased territories.

Two other conference projects, one relating to the Chinese Eastern Railway and the other to the prohibition of importation of arms into China also encountered serious obstacles when the committee considered them. DRY AGENTS UNDER FIRE

Uncover Scandal in New York.

Blackmailing Practices Are Charged; Forces to be Reorganized.

Cafe Keepers Victims; Prosecutions Promised by Federal Officers.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Prohibition agents vied with pickpockets in robbing and blackmailing cafe keepers on the third, or United States District Court, floor of the Government Building it developed today. The practice was continued over a term of weeks and government detectives and the local police were unable to put a stop to it until recently. Asst. U. S. Dist. Atty. Peter J. McCoy was especially assigned to break up the gang of swindlers and it was through his efforts that the scandalous practices were halted.

A complete report of an investigation of the wholesale blackmailing of citizens by prohibition agents is now in the hands of U. S. Dist. Atty. Col. William Hayward, who is holding the evidence pending reorganization of the prohibition staff. It is known that the removal of certain government agents was recommended by the investigators for Col. Hayward and that these agents were removed through Washington headquarters at the request of prohibition Director Ralph A. Day.

METHODS EMPLOYED. The method of operation of the alleged criminal prohibition agents and the pickpocket mob which seemed to be following in their wake was simple. The agents would enter a saloon or cafe or restaurant and hand the proprietor what purported to be United States District Court summons, but what was really a hand-written ticket, requesting the victim to appear in court on a certain day. The agent would show his badge and credentials and depart. He would not, however, fail to report the case either to his superior or to the United States District Attorney.

When the victim, fearing for his liberty, would appear at the district court on a certain day, the agent would appear in the courtroom, by a man who would offer to withdraw the charge and take back the "summons" on payment by the victim of from $50 to $500. If the victim refused to pay the extortion the agent would report the case to the United States District Attorney.

PICKPOCKETS BUST. The mob of pickpockets who were robbing the victims of the federal district court at the same time as the blackmailing prohibition agents, marked the pickpocket from which the victim took his money to pay the extortion and would remove the roll of money from the victim's pockets and would take back the "summons" on payment by the victim of from $50 to $500. If the victim refused to pay the extortion the agent would report the case to the United States District Attorney.

LODGE MEMBERS TO TAKE CHOICE.

New York Lutheran Church Gives Them Notice of Rale from Synod.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) N. Y. Feb. 1.—Fifty members of St. Matthews Lutheran Church have been given the choice of severing their connection with the national and local societies or being dropped from membership roll of the church congregation. This action the Rev. C. Frankenstein, the pastor, announced today, was based on a rule adopted by the Missouri Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, which includes part of New York State.

ASKS BONUS RAISED ON WINE TAXES. Maryland Representative Makes Move for Local Option Districts.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Payment of a soldier bonus by a tax on beer and light wines was advocated today before the House Ways and Means Committee by Representative Hill, Republican, Maryland, who urged favorable action on his bill to create Federal tax on distilled spirits for the purpose of affording voters an opportunity of deciding whether manufacture and sale of beverage of low alcoholic content should be legalized.

Under the Hill bill, which provides that all revenue collected in taxes on beer and light wines should go to veterans, each congressional district would constitute a local option district. One of the majority of voters in any district favored amendment of the Volstead Act to legalize four per cent beer and 12 per cent wines, the manufacture and sale of such liquors within the district would be permitted.

The measure proposes a tax of 25 cents a gallon on beer and 40 cents a gallon on wines, which would have to be consumed in homes or places other than the place of sale.

Legislation that would legalize the sale of beer and light wines was introduced by Representative Brennan, Republican, Michigan, who declared that a beer tax of 25 cents a gallon would yield enough revenue in four years to pay a soldier bonus. Greater respect for law will result if the Volstead Act is amended, he said, Mr. Brennan asserted.

use in war of noxious gases and to a treaty to this effect and later:

of using submarines as destruyers without violating in the war of 1914-1918, the requirements universally accepted of the lives of neutrals and combatants and to the end
the prohibition of the use of submarines as commerce destruyers shall be universally accepted and part of the law of nations they now accept that prohibition as a permanent binding rule between themselves and they invite all other nations to adhere thereto.

Sec. 1.—The use in war of suffocating, poisonous or other materials and all analogous materials or devices having justly been condemned by the public opinion of the civilized world and the prohibition of such use having been declared in treaties to which majority of the civilized powers are parties, the signatory powers to the end that this prohibition shall be universally accepted as a part of international law binding like the conventions and practice of nations, declare their assent to such prohibition, agree to be bound thereby as between themselves and invite all other civilized nations to adhere thereto.

Sec. 2.—The present treaty shall be ratified as soon as possible in accordance with the constitutional methods of the signatory powers and shall take effect on the deposit of all the ratifications, which shall take place at Washington.

The government of the United States of America will transmit to all the signatory powers a certified copy of the present treaty.

The present treaty, in French and in English, shall remain deposited in the archives of the government of the United States of America, and duly certified copies hereof will be transmitted by that government to each of the signatory powers.

Sec. 3.—The government of the United States of America will further transmit to each of the non-signatory powers a duly certified copy of the present treaty and invite its adherence thereto.

Any non-signatory power may adhere to the present treaty by communicating an instrument of adherence to be given of the United States of America, which hereupon transmit to each of the signatory and adhering powers a certified copy of each instrument of adherence.

In faith whereof, the above named plenipotentiaries have signed the present treaty.
Done at the city of Washington
this day of January, 1922.

The best thing about the agreement is the spirit which has been manifested throughout our negotiations and to which is due our ability to reach this fortunate conclusion. In other words, we are taking perhaps the greatest forward step to establish the rule of peace.

MADDOO GIVES RAILWAY FACTS.

Declares Federal Control Aided Roads.

Contents Labor Was Loyal During War.

Denies Owners Lost by Government Acts.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Railroads were in better physical condition at the end of the period of Federal control than when taken over during the war, William G.
McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury, and war-time Director-General of Railroads, today told the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee in giving an accounting of his guardianship of the properties during 1918.

The committee, which is inquiring into recent railroad conditions, was unable to hear all of Mr. McAdoo's testimony today and he will continue tomorrow.

Mr. McAdoo contended railroad labor had been loyal, remaining at its post when more lucrative employment was offered in other industries and that wage increases made while he was Director-General were not excessive, but subsequently were further increased.

The roads when turned back to their owners, he declared, with more locomotives, $115 million more freight cars and 1051 more passenger cars than they had possessed at the beginning of Federal control, "were in condition to meet the severest traffic demands in their history."

CREDIT LOST BEFORE WAR.

"The credit of the railroads was destroyed before the war," he said, quoting statements by railroad executives. The executives, he added, did not produce under Federal control the results as to revenue and operation that were brought about prior to that time.

The railroads were permitted to continue for four months after Federal control was established with little interference in the way of management, he said, but the regional reorganization, he contended, was necessary in May, 1918, when he "became convinced that the managements of the railroads by the railroad corporation could not produce desired results."

Unification of the railroads, he continued, "saved $115,000,000 in operating expenses in 1918."
Throughout Federal control, experienced railroad executives were in charge of the properties, in his direction, he said, denying "the deliberate attempts made to create the impression that I immediately made drastic changes in the management of the railroads and, disregarding the experience and ability of the able railroad men of the country, attempted to run the railroads upon new and untried theories of my own."

WANTED COMPETITION.

Replying to a question Mr. Mc-Adoo declared he did not advocate pooling of business by the railroads under private control, but favored assisting the roads in competing for traffic.

If the railroads were in "deplorable conditions" when returned to the corporations March 1, 1920, and if their equipment was in the "worst condition ever known," he asked how was it possible that in that year, as stated in the testimony of their executives, they handled "the largest volume of traffic" in their history.

"Performance of this 'greatest task,' he added, was possible because "during the period of Federal control $1,219,840,391 was expended in improvements, additions, betterments and equipment which made the railroad properties an in-initely better transportation machine than at the time of 1918, when the government took possession."

Mr. McAdoo said that in his opinion railroad labor was grossly underpaid at the time the government took control and that there were many grave abuses in the matter of working conditions. It was necessary, he contended, to fix rates of pay for railroad employees that would enable the railroads to command their share of the country's labor "so that this basic necessity of the war could function at the required point."

Clash in Silesia Results in Several Casualties on Both Sides.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
PARIS, Feb. 1.—Confirmation was received today by the French Foreign Office of Monday night's incident at Petersdorf, Upper Silesia, in which two French soldiers were killed and twenty wounded during firing between the French and a band of Germans, who suffered a number of casualties. The incident arose during a search for concealed weapons.

It was said at the Foreign Office that the International Commission in Silesia would take steps to arrest those responsible and insured order.

The incident at Petersdorf, says
a dispatch to the Havas Agency, from Oppeln, arose over an attempt to recapture a number of quick-fires and rifles seized by the French. On Monday a band of Germans surrounded and attacked the quarters of the twenty-seventh battalion of unmounted chasseurs.
Tuesday grenades were thrown against the barracks.

The French post replied to the attack and one German was killed and several Germans wounded before they fled.

The French government, according to the dispatch, will exact reparations from the German government for the attacks.

immense value, especially in the Southwest, as is indicated by the fact that public and private Spanish instructors have more than 15,000 pupils in Los Angeles alone.

Para beneficio de los muchos amigos de habla castellana que tienen el Times, así como también para ayudar a los estudiantes de este idioma en Los Angeles, el Times tiene el gusto de ofrecerles una serie de noticias importantes de última hora, en español. El conocimiento de este idioma, expuesto en una forma sencilla, usando frases de uso diario, es de gran valor, especialmente para los residentes del suroeste del Estado. En esta ciudad actualmente hay más de 15,000 personas que se dedican al estudio de la lengua española.

SCIENTIST GIVES TEMBLOR CAUSE.

Recent Shakes Result of Ocean Bed Split.

Says "Fault" That Wrecked Bay City Widened.

Places Last Disturbance in Near Portland.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 1. — The huge "fault" in the earth's crust which first occurred beneath San Francisco Bay, the memorable catastrophe of 1906, has become a few hundred miles longer.

This was the explanation today of Dr. Chester A. Reeds, professor of geology and seismographic observer at the American Museum of Natural History, for the violent tremors of the earth which yesterday demoralized seismographs throughout America and had scientists "guessing" as to their origin.

OCCURRED NEAR PORTLAND.

"The earthquake took place at a point beneath the bed of the Pacific Ocean about 250 miles west of Portland, Or., and was an earth movement, a slipping, along the fault plane known as the San Andreas rift," said Dr. Reeds.

In 1906 there was a remarkable earthquake caused by shifting along this plane, along the California coast from San Francisco to Cape Mendocino, in a north-westerly course. It was a further slipping along this fault which caused the remarkable tremors of Jan. 31, 1922.

LAKE CRACKED PANE.

The earthquake of 1906, said Dr. Reeds, was the first breach of the earth's crust beneath San Francisco. Like a cracked window pane, he said, the "fault" is spreading in each direction, until now it extends from Southern California, northward to Cape Mendocino, in a north-westerly course. It was a further slipping along this fault which caused the remarkable tremors of Jan. 31, 1922.

The seismograph at the American Museum was one of the few in America to withstand the terrific shocks which occurred for nearly three hours yesterday. Of the record made by the wavering

ARMED BANDITS GET MAIL.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—Five sacks of mail, believed to be registered, were stolen by three armed bandits who, after firing one shot, stopped a mail clerk in Whiting, Ind., this morning as he was en route from the Pennsylvania depot to the post-office, according to reports to the Chicago police.

According to the Whiting police, the bandits waited until the mail train had pulled away. The mail needle, Dr. Reeds said, "It was the most remarkable we have ever seen."

VIOLENT TEMBLOR.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

HONOLULU (T. H.) Jan. 31.—The United States magnetic observatory at Ewa, on this island, registered an earthquake of such violent intensity early this morning that the observer was unable to locate either the direction of the temblor or its approximate distance from this point. The seismograph indicated that the earth movement started at 2:55 a.m., and reached its maximum at 3:10 a.m., continuing for more than two hours.

(There is a difference of two hours thirty minutes between Honolulu time and Pacific Coast time, which would place the period of registration of the temblors at Ewa yesterday morning at approximately the same time as the earth movement was recorded at different observatories on the mainland of the United States.)

NEW YORK POLICE

ASK TEAR BOMBS.

(INCLUDES DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 1. — The police department has asked the Board of Aldermen for tear gas bombs and gas masks as aids in capturing criminals and breaking up mobs.

Inspector-General Thor appeared before the board and urged the appropriation of $4500 for the purchase of 100 tear gas bombs for the department and 100 gas masks for the police bombing squads.

The explained the plan was to have the tear bombs stored in headquarters. In coping with mob violence and in driving men out of cellars in which they were making a desperate stand with revolvers or rifles against capture, he said, they would be invaluable.

HONOLULU TO HAVE COMMERCIAL MEET.

PAN-PACIFIC CONFERENCE IS PLANNED IN HAWAII NEXT FALL.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—Plans for the Pan-Pacific Commercial Conference, to be held in Honolulu next October or November, were outlined yesterday by Alexander Hume Ford, director of the Pan-Pacific Union, who is in San Francisco on his way home to Honolulu from Washington.

Mr. Ford said that President Harding supports the conference idea and that Secretary of Commerce Hoover has promised to send delegates. The conference will deal with the question of arbitration of commercial misunderstandings in the Pacific area, and will seek greater uniformity in bills of exchange and other commercial documents, and improved facilities for the handling of news.

BOYS' LIVES SAVED.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)

FRESNO, Feb. 1.—Holding tightly to the tail of a dog that was accompanying them, Fred Johnston and Alton Self, each aged 14, of Fresno, were led to safety through a blinding snowstorm on Monday in the mountains about thirty miles east of Fresno after they had become lost about two miles from their camp.

Two other boys, who had become lost in the same snowstorm, were found by a rescue party a short time later lying in the snow completely exhausted. The four were members of a party of seven that went into the mountains on Sunday on a snow party.

CHAMP LIKELY TO FACE WILLS.

Kearns Admits Giant Negro is Logical Contender.

Will Talk Cold Turkey for Purse Over $200,000.

Boxing Never Tried to Side-Step Darkey.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Jack Kearns admitted today that Harry Wills was the logical candidate to give his champion Jack Dempsey a real battle. Incidentally, Kearns allowed that he would be ready to talk turkey the moment some promoter showed himself as an attractive pursuer, but that he would have to be more than $200,000.

It was evident from Kearns's talk that he does not propose to scamp off with a $100,000 ante and leave the fighters to split a paltry $20,000. Kearns realizes the fact that he has in Dempsey, and when he came a time when the public demand that it will be made a fight between the champion and Wills would be ready to take "Wills on," said Kearns.

It was the general impression in sporting circles today that Wills and Dempsey will be matched early and there were many who predicted that the bout would be staged in the same arena in Jersey City, where Dempsey and Carpentier had it out last July.

There was much rejoicing today over the action of the New York State Athletic Commission in placing a ban on the proposed Dempsey-Brennan bout.

BOXFIGHTERS BUMP NOODLES; HALT BOUT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 1.—Law Tandler, Philadelphia lightweight, and Mel Coogan of Brooklyn bumped heads with such force tonight in the first round of a scheduled eight-round bout that the fight was stopped, the referee declaring Coogan was too badly hurt to continue. It was declared no contest. One minute after the start Tandler led with a left and in trying to sidestep it, Coogan ran into him. The Brooklyn boxer's head was badly cut and Tandler was severely shaken up.

ATHLETES SET TWO RECORDS.

Joie Ray Shatters Mile and Half Mark, Murphy Batters High Jump.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Two American indoor records were broken tonight in the annual winter track and field meet of the Millrose Athletic Association.

Joie Ray, fleet-footed Chicagoan, ran a mile and a half in 6m. 42.2-5a, clipping four-fifths of a second from his previous record, made in the same games, Jan. 24, 1917.

In accomplishing this feat, he succeeded in leaving the field of star runners pitted against him. Marvin Rieck, Princeton star, and E. O. McLean, University of Pennsylvania, finished in that order only a few inches apart. Harold Cuthill, the "flying parson" of the Boston A.A., who defeated Ray in this event last year, was ten yards behind McLean.

The other record was made by John L. Murphy, Notre Dame, who cleared the bar in the high jump at 7 ft. 4 1/2 in. This was a quarter of an inch higher than the previous record, made by Sam C. Lawrence, Boston A.A., on Feb. 19, 1912.

Loose, Murchison, Illinois A.C., also equaled the American indoor record of 6 ft. 2-5a in the sixty-yard dash. Sixteen sprinters have covered the distance in this time between 1912 and 1920.

The results follow:
Fifty-yard dash: Lee (University of Pennsylvania), 5m. 5-5a; Jackson (New York A.C.), 5m. 6-5a; G. D. Doherty (Ireland), 5m. 7-5a; Perryman (unaffiliated), fourth, 5m. 8-5a.

REDLANDS, Feb. 1.—The second round in the college conference basketball season is now under way and from now on it will be tough sledding for the leaders. Something is bound to happen on Saturday night for Redlands and Southern Branch are to play then and one of them is certain to lose the game.

Coach Guy Daniels is working hard to get his men in good shape for the game for he believes that it will be the hardest one his men have to play yet. Redlands would be riding pretty but for having lost a game to Caltek, the entirely unexpected having happened.

Whittier is not considered entirely out of the running, but is believed to have small chance of heading in at the top.

Football Star Voluntarily Retires from Bear Squad to Take Up Coaching.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Feb. 1.—Announcement was made here today by Graduate Manager L. A. Nichols that Irving (Crip) Toomey, star halfback on the California football team and catcher on the baseball team for two years, was done with collegiate competition and would not play with the baseball team this spring, although eligible. Toomey voluntarily quit athletics after playing in a game of football at Fresno in which professional football players took part. No official action has as yet been taken by the authorities here on account of Toomey's resignation of his own accord.

Toomey's retirement from college athletics will be a big blow to the University of California football team, which has been Pacific Coast conference champion for two years.

Nichols announced that Toomey has intended for some time to quit the amateur ranks to take up coaching work next fall and that he accepted pay for playing in the Fresno game with the full knowledge that his net would bar him from playing on the varsity team.

SPORT SHRAPNEL

By HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Oakland has managed to rip off only one pennant for itself in the Pacific Coast League, but leads all rivals by several jumps in grand total number of managers employed.

Ivan Howard is the latest, and likewise about 'stealth.' These leaders have been drawn from nearly every position on the diamond. If they still retained the limberness of youth and could be assembled together in one spot they would make quite a spiffy baseball team.

Included in the list are such diamond luminaries as Pete Lohman, George Van Halten, Bill Reddy, Harry Wolverton, Bud Sharpe, Horace Mitas, Arthur Devlin, Tyler Christian, Rowdy Elliott, Del Howard and now Ivan. With two exceptions, all of these saw service in the majors and some of them were outstanding figures, with Van Halten towering somewhat above the remainder of the group.

But Van's managerial ability seemed to be in inverse ratio to his greatness as an outfielder and, while he developed some good men, including Duffy Lewis, he did not greatly endanger the pennant prospects of rival leaders.

While the Oaks have capped but once in the P.C.L., they did lead a flag back in the days of the old California League. They turned this trick under the direction of Lohman. This was in 1902, when they edged out the Angels under Jim Morley. Doc Moskman was Oakland's best pitching bet that year, and Pete himself did practically all the backstopping. Jules Strieb played first base, Kid Mohler at second, the inimitable Brick Devereaux at third, Buck Franks at short, Dymally in left, Drennan in center and Crow in right.

This was Lohman's last great baseball achievement. Subsequently he suffered a nervous breakdown, but did not quit the game until led from the field helpless.

Pete figured to the last, and his last play, related to me by the late Hap Hogan, was an epic in diamond pathos. Hap always contended Lohman was the smartest catcher that ever pulled a mask over his head.

This game was between Oakland and Seattle. The score was 9 to 8. Seattle had a runner on second and one run missed the game. Lohman detected the sign for a sacrifice and signaled for one straight over the plate which would be easy for the batter to hunt. His pitcher was amazed, yet complied, and the ball came up as unerringly as an arrow.

With the pitcher's wind-up, Lohman sprang from his position behind the plate and dashed down the base line with the warning cry, "I have it." But he had tipped his hand by leaving his position too soon. The batter saw the move and did not swing at the ball or at his head.

Can a wrestler beat a boxer?

That seems to be the topic of the day in sportdom. But I saw a couple of Chinamen, nearly clean out 1000 boxing fans one night. It all happened nearly twenty-five years ago in the old athletic club on Spring street, where the Western A. C. recently went out of business.

The hall seated about 1300 people and the seats were all wooden boards along each side of the hall with the exception of the ringside chairs. There had been two preliminary bouts before the main event, which was to be a twenty-rounder. Many of the old-timers who were there that night will well

The main event was between a middleweight, Jim Burns, and I have forgotten the name of the other. John Brink was the referee and Walter McStay was the matchmaker, secretary, and doorkeeper that night. Among the prominent boxing fans of Los Angeles of those days was a judge and not-those days was a judge and politician whom we will call Judge Jones. But the judge was a good sport and happened to arrive a few minutes before the principals entered the ring and as all the seats were occupied, he shared a ladder that happened to be standing along side the wall. The top was taken up by two young fellows, so the judge was well satisfied to stand about two steps up, just high enough to get a fair view of the ring. Judge Jones was also a very natty dresser and like many prominent men of that time, usually wore a high hat, and sported gloves and a cane.

A HARD-BOILED EGG.

Shortly after the announcer entered the ring he was followed by Burns in his ring togs with a coat over his shoulder. He walked over to his corner, hung the coat over the ring post and took a seat on his chair while waiting for his opponent. Burns had the reputation of being a hard-boiled egg.

Just as the referee entered the ring, a shot was heard coming from the direction of the locker-room stairs that led up into the gymnasium. A second later a Chink came running up the stairs with a big rat in one hand and a

As a Financier, Cicero Can Never Equal Titus!

Starting every Friday and ending every Thursday, The Times conducts a Wad comic-strip contest. The best idea gets $10, and next $5, and all others available $2 each. Ideas must be original, local, "drawn" and funny. Each picture must be described in words or a rough sketch. Title and dialogue must be supplied. All strips must deal with some member of the Wad family—Cicero Wad, the spender; Titus Wad, the nickel saver; Mrs. Spendix Wad, club and society woman; Walt Wad, sporty, speeding coon; Elva Wad, pretty and frivolous daughter; Gunn Wad, 13-year-old terror; and Cicero Wad, Jr., the baby. Write on one side of paper only. Address all communications to Mr. Wad, care The Times. Anyone may compete and submit as many ideas as desired. No manuscripts or drawings will be returned.

Eddie Farrell Seeks Aid of Noted Surgeon

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Eddie Farrell, star sprinter of the New York Athletic Club, fell in line with other cripples today to be examined by Dr. Adolf Lorenz for a foot ailment that struck him while running the Best Charles Paddock at Pasadena last summer, and which has kept him from the track since.

Unbeaten in the East, Farrell was striving mightily to overcome the speedy Paddock when his right foot hit the ground with such force that for weeks he suffered acute pain and carried a cane. X-rays and examinations failed to explain the trouble. Like others uncured, he finally decided to see what the famous American orthopedic surgeon could do for him.

SIGNING UP FORREST SENIOR, the leading bowler in the Mercantile League, the T-Bone Riley five believes it will make things hot for the Anaheim Laundry team tomorrow night at the Broadway alley.

Hal Watters, the star forward of the California quintet, and Ensign Faine, captain and coach of the championship five, make an ideal combination.

Games have been arranged by the California basketball team with the Long Beach National Guardsmen, San Diego Y.M.C.A., Pomona American Legion and U.S.C.

Ensign J. B. Dow of the U.S.C. California has announced his intention of developing a championship fencing team. He has several promising fencers in Ensign Howell and Ensign Watters.

Ensign M. V. Lewis was presented with a silver loving cup by the junior officers' mess aboard the U.S.C. California in recognition of his being the model dancer aboard ship.

The U.S.C. California leaves San Pedro for San Francisco on February 15.

The ship's basketball team has already arranged contests with the Olympic Club, St. Ignace College, Oakland Y.M.C.A., Stanford, Santa Clara and Stockton American Legion.

The number of letters addressed to Dr. Heady asking for individual character analyses has become so large that The Times has arranged with him to make such analyses for the sending of a three-month subscription to The Times. This may be either a new subscription or a renewal of an old one. Send in full, with your request, a photograph of an individual character analysis and a blank will be sent you free of charge. Address: The Character Analysis, Times, Los Angeles Department.

FLEET SPORTS.

Tonight the semifinal boxing bouts for the title between the battleship division and train force will be staged aboard the U.S.S. New Mexico at 7:30 o'clock. Sailor Joe Fisher will be in charge of the smoker, while Lieut. Emmett Keating will handle the program. The New Mexico is known far and wide for its hospitality so a good time is in store for the visitors.

 NOW SHOWING A SUPERB PROGRAM
"HOPE HAMILTON"
 Suggested by Fannie Hurst with Guy Bates Post, in declaring these days, even though it is hard to associate the lady with anything so rural.
 Just to show you she isn't spoofing, she is going to San Luis Obispo at the end of the picture to take up the course in horticulture there which she dropped when she came south five years ago to go into pictures.
 Besides being genuinely interested in the subject, Miss Hamilton's health is so bad, she says, that she finds it necessary to leave off the strenuous career of acting and take to the open fields. Much of the agricultural college's work is naturally in the open air.
 It will take about six months to complete the course, and if Miss Hamilton doesn't find the call of art too loud, she is going to retire for a whole year to a ranch where L. Frothingham, her husband, is buying for her.
 Asked what she meant to study at college, Miss Hamilton answered a circle of friends: "Oh, planting and grafting and such."
 "Why confine the grafting to agriculture?" asked that awful out-up, J. Lawson Butt.
 Jackie Coogan Buys Home.
 Starting out very early in life to accumulate a home, little Jackie Coogan has just purchased the beautiful residence in the Wilshire district, formerly owned by Beale Barricade and her husband, Howard Hickman.
 Somebody in New York has sent Jackie a toy lion. But it stands thirty inches high and is four feet long, so it has a formidable appearance. By touching a spring it will also roar with delicious naturalness. But everybody around the place has been working the roar until it is fast becoming a squeak, so yesterday Jackie got a squeak on the lion, which reads, "Don't roar my lion."

English Jobless Raid and Seize the Workhouse.

ST. CARLS-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH. LONDON, Feb. 1.—A crowd of unemployed estimated at 500 raided the Dartford workhouse, where they installed themselves and demanded that the board of guardians supply them with food for 1000 people. The guardians refused to do this and, after some persuasion, the unemployed departed peacefully, singing "The Red Flag" as they left.

ST. CARLS-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH. LONDON, Feb. 1.—The Minister of Health, has informed the popular board of guardians that the new scale of relief whereby married couples with children get 14 2s is unlawful. He said it was contrary to public policy to adopt a scale placing many recipients for relief in a better financial position than are many workers. The guardians agreed to postpone the operation of the new scale.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—(By A. P. Night Wire.)
Stock Exchange today resumed its dull and uneven course, various specialties establishing highest prices for the current movement, while standard shares were dull and irregular.
Any tendency toward general bullish operations was discouraged by the money market. Call loans opened at 5 per cent, but advanced to 6 per cent at midday as a result of heavy February payments.
Activities of pools centered in such issues as American Ice, Gulf Storage Battery, United Fruit, Electric Remington, Typewriter, Kresge, Kayser, Central Leather, Kresge, Leather, preferred and Endicott, 5 points, at extreme gains of 2 to 3 points.
United States Steel was underwritten for the final quarter of 1921 and most kindred issues were
